Introduction

Contemporary calls for the reform of teacher appraisal and evaluation practices are uniformly accompanied by the expectation that performance standards reflect the best of our understanding of effective instruction. One of the most widely respected researchers in this field is Robert J. Marzano.

The following documents and processes are based on The Art and Science of Teaching: A Comprehensive Framework for Effective Instruction (Marzano, 2007) and Effective Supervision: Supporting the Art and Science of Teaching (Marzano, Frontier, & Livingston, 2011). For school districts intending to base new teacher evaluation practices on Dr. Marzano's work, the following are offered as tools to support that intent.

The utilization or adaptation of any or all of these tools will, of course, depend on district circumstance and need. They are offered as templates for supporting the kinds of reflection, goal setting, observation, support, and appraisal that every teacher will need in order to continuously improve teaching performance.

The Marzano Teacher Evaluation Model

Appendix A presents the four domains and 60 elements within those domains that comprise the Marzano Teacher Evaluation Model. More detailed information about these domains and elements may also be found in Effective Supervision: Supporting the Art and Science of Teaching (Marzano et al., 2011; see chapter 3).

Additional information about the research base for the Marzano Teacher Evaluation Model is available online at marzanoenter.com. Specifically, the white paper Examining the Role of Teacher Evaluation in Student Achievement (Marzano, Toth, & Schooling, 2012) summarizes the results of four studies which examined the effect of the Marzano Teacher Evaluation Model on student achievement: What Works in Oklahoma Schools (Marzano Research Laboratory, 2010), the Adams 50 Instructional Model Study (Marzano & Haystead, 2011), the Report on Professional Development (Haystead, 2010), and the Evaluation Study of the Effects of Promethean ActivClassroom on Student Achievement (Marzano & Haystead, 2010). Each study found positive correlations between teachers' use of the Marzano Teacher Evaluation Model and students' learning and achievement. Additionally, 300 experimental/control studies were conducted by practicing teachers to examine the effects of strategies from the Marzano Teacher Evaluation Model. These 300 studies were combined in a meta-analysis (Haystead & Marzano, 2009) which found an average student achievement percentile gain of 16 (effect size = 0.42) associated with teachers' use of the strategies.

A Roadmap for the Annual Evaluation Process

The Marzano Teacher Evaluation Model (Appendix A) presents 60 elements of effective teaching that administrators can use to guide the development of teachers over the course of a school year. This toolkit explains and facilitates specific actions and steps that administrators and teachers can take at five specific times of the year to help the teacher develop expertise. Figure 1 depicts those actions and steps.

This toolkit provides forms, scales, and templates that scaffold and facilitate the process shown in figure 1. These tools are found in the appendices (pages 18-187) and are listed in bold type in figure 1. For example, the first form that a teacher completes at the beginning of the year is the Personal Profile Form (see the first column in figure 1.1). This form can be found in Appendix D.

As shown in figure 1, the actions and steps presented in this toolkit are designed to help the teacher reflect on his or her practice (SELF-REFLECTION) and set growth goals (GOALS). The administrator's actions and steps are designed to help him or her observe the teacher (OBSERVATION) and give the teacher useful feedback about his or her practice (FEEDBACK). The following sections provide further detail about the actions and steps that should take place during each specific time of the year: (1) beginning of the year, (2) fall and spring, (3) mid-year, and (4) end of the year. Because the same observation processes are used both in the fall and in the spring, those times of the year are discussed together.

Beginning of the Year

INITIAL MEETING

Administrator meets with teacher to discuss the Marzano Teacher Evaluation Model and to explain the evaluation process, timeline, and forms

- Marzano Teacher Evaluation Model (Appendix A)
- Teacher Scales for Reflective Practice (Domain 1) (Appendix B)
- Teacher Scales for Domains 2, 3, and 4 (Appendix C)

SELF-REFLECTION

Teacher completes the Personal Profile Form (Appendix D)

GOALS

Teacher completes the Goal Setting Template (Appendix E)

GOALS

Teacher meets with administrator to discuss goals

Initial Meeting

During the initial meeting, the administrator reviews the Marzano Teacher Evaluation Model (Appendix A) with the teacher, ensuring that the teacher understands each of the 60 elements of the model and its supporting research. Additionally, the administrator can review the Teacher Scales for Reflective Practice (Domain 1) (Appendix B) and the Teacher Scales for Domains 2, 3, and 4 (Appendix C) to ensure that the teacher understands the five-point scale used to measure levels of performance and progress for each element of each domain. At this meeting, the administrator might also review the evaluation process depicted in figure 1 (page 4) with the teacher and answer any questions the teacher might have.

Self-Reflection

Documents and processes related to teacher reflection should be completed early in the new school year so the teacher can use that reflection to help set goals. The Personal Profile Form (Appendix D) can serve as the basis for a personal self-reflection on the 41 elements of Domain 1 of the Marzano Teacher Evaluation Model. Teachers should use the Teacher Scales for Reflective Practice (Domain 1) (Appendix B) to score themselves on each of the 41 elements of Domain 1 and record those scores on the Personal Profile Form in Appendix D. Scales for the remaining 19 elements of the model (Domains 2, 3, and 4) are found in Appendix C.

This self-reflection may or may not be shared with administrators, instructional coaches, or mentors. The scale for each element calls for a teacher's self-assessment of current levels of proficiency as an important first step in determining specific professional growth goals.

Goals

Goal-Setting Template

The Goal Setting Template (Appendix E) is structured in such a way that the teacher may identify up to three elements from Domain 1, as well as several other elements from Domains 2, 3, and 4 of the framework as targets for growth. The format of the Goal Setting Template suggests that in Domain 1 it is likely that the teacher will select elements from each of the three lesson segments of the model: routine segments, content segments, and on-the-spot segments.

The Goal Setting Template also calls for the teacher to develop action steps and explicit timelines that include support the teacher has identified as integral to reaching a desired performance level for each goal. Support may include, but is not limited to: feedback from administrators, coaches, and peers; professional development opportunities; the teacher tracking his or her own growth; and opportunities to observe and discuss effective execution of the strategies and behaviors targeted for growth.

Goal-Setting Conference

In advance of a goal-setting conference, the teacher sends the Goal-Setting Template (Appendix E) to his or her administrator. The administrator's preparation for the goal setting conference includes a review of the document in order to be prepared to offer endorsements, suggestions, additions, or modifications. It is understood that it is the responsibility of the administrator to identify necessary areas for the teacher's growth and development if the teacher has failed to do so for himself or herself.

Fall and Spring

OBSERVATION

Administrator conducts formal observation cycles (number of cycles is based on a teacher's status):

- Initial Status teachers: Two formal observation cycles
- Professional Status teachers: One formal observation cycle

For each formal observation cycle:

Teacher completes the Comprehensive Observation Pre-Conference Questions (Appendix F) and meets with administrator

Administrator observes the teacher, completes the Comprehensive Observation Record (Appendix G), and provides a copy to the teacher

Teacher completes the Comprehensive Observation Post-Conference Questions (Appendix H) and meets with administrator

OBSERVATION

Administrator conducts numerous informal observations using the Informal Observation Record (Appendix I)

Observations

Formal/Comprehensive Observations

The number of comprehensive or formal observations a teacher must have is a negotiated agreement in most districts. From our perspective, the number should reflect the stage of professional development attained by the teacher. For instance, we recommend that “Initial Status” teachers would complete two comprehensive observation cycles in the fall and two more in the spring. For “Professional Status” teachers, one each in the fall and spring are recommended.

Pre-Observation Conferences

When planning for a formal observation of instruction, the teacher prepares responses to the Comprehensive Observation Pre-Conference Questions (Appendix F) for the lesson to be observed. The completed form is then provided to the administrator in advance of a pre-observation conference. The pre-observation dialog between the teacher and the administrator focuses on the teacher's plans for the lesson as outlined in the Comprehensive Observation Pre-Conference Questions, but this discussion may also identify additional information about the lesson goals and plans which can be noted on the form.

Formal Observations

When conducting a formal observation of teaching, the administrator makes use of the Comprehensive Observation Record (Appendix G) to note the instructional strategies and behaviors from Domain 1 of the framework that are exhibited in the lesson. It is important to note that during the observation of a single lesson not all 41 elements from Domain 1 will be observed and rated.

The Comprehensive Observation Record also calls for the administrator to give an assessment of the teacher's performance during the lesson, using the Innovating (4), Applying (3), Developing (2), Beginning (1), and Not Using (0) scale. This scale is consistent with the scale used in the Teacher Scales for Reflective Practice (Domain 1) (Appendix B). Of particular interest to the observer are the elements of the framework that the teacher has selected as targets for improvement.

Following the formal observation, the administrator provides the teacher with a copy of the completed Comprehensive Observation Record for the teacher to review prior to a post-conference meeting.

Post-Observation Conferences

In preparation for a post-observation conference, the teacher reviews the administrator's notes and ratings from the Comprehensive Observation Record (Appendix G) and reflects on his or her lesson by preparing responses for the Comprehensive Observation Post-Conference Questions (Appendix H).

At the post-observation conference the teacher and the administrator review the relevant documents. They discuss the lesson and the administrator's ratings of the strategies and behaviors exhibited during the lesson, while giving specific attention to progress on the teacher's growth goals. As a result of the post-observation dialog, the administrator may choose to adjust any of the ratings assigned on the lesson's Comprehensive Observation Record.

Informal Classroom Observations

Informal observations are typically completed throughout the year. The Informal Observation Record (Appendix I) is a tool with multiple applications. The administrator may use it during the informal observation of a classroom when a rating scale is not employed. Typically these visits are less than a full class period.

The Informal Observation Record is also well suited for collegial teams conducting instructional rounds, peer observation visits to classrooms, and observations done by instructional coaches and mentors as they prepare feedback to the teacher being observed.

Mid-Year

SELF-REFLECTION

Students complete the Student Surveys for Reflective Practice (Appendix J)

GOALS

Teacher completes Goals—Reflections and Revisions (Appendix K)

FEEDBACK

Administrator completes the Mid-Year Formative Feedback Form (Appendix L)

MID-YEAR MEETING

Teacher and administrator meet to discuss goals and formative feedback

Self-Reflection

Student Surveys for Reflective Practice

Student surveys should be completed after students have had a chance to get to know their teacher (e.g., sometime after the first month of school and likely by mid-year). Ideally, the teacher would administer the student surveys before reflecting on and revising his or her goals in order to use information from the student surveys to inform that process. Student surveys might also be used at the end of the year. Student surveys that address the 41 elements of Domain 1 of the Marzano Teacher Evaluation Model are included in Appendix J. These surveys are designed specifically for primary, elementary, middle school, and high school students. It should be noted that the high school survey contains six questions for each of the 41 elements of the Marzano Teacher Evaluation Model (surveys at the lower levels include only one question per element). It is not intended that teachers will ask students to respond to all six questions for each element.

Rather, a teacher should select the survey questions that are most appropriate for their individual growth goals and are likely to yield the most valuable feedback from students.

Goals

Goals—Reflections and Revisions (Appendix K) is intended to facilitate and support periodic reviews of the teacher’s growth goals. Reviews of this sort might be completed in the middle of the year after receiving feedback from the administrator and students (e.g., informal observations, comprehensive observations, student surveys). It is the teacher’s responsibility to prepare the reflection section for each goal area and then for the teacher and administrator to meet to discuss progress and to note in writing any necessary revisions in the action steps.

Feedback

The processes and formats of the appraisal of a teacher’s performance are matters of district policies and, increasingly, state-specific legislation. The Marzano Teacher Evaluation Model and supporting document templates and guidelines for their utilization are precisely that—guidelines. They are offered as examples of the guidance and support teachers and their administrators need when pedagogical growth and development is the professional target.

The Mid-Year Formative Feedback Form (Appendix L) is designed to allow a teacher’s administrator to provide narrative statements and ratings of performance in each of the nine “design questions” from The Art and Science of Teaching (Marzano, 2007). The Mid-Year Formative Feedback Form is typically completed by the administrator and given to the teacher at a mid-year conference. The teacher might also bring his or her goals to this meeting.

End of the Year

SELF-REFLECTION

Teacher updates the Personal Profile Form (Appendix D) from the beginning of the year

GOALS

Teacher completes the Goal Summary (Appendix M)

FEEDBACK

Administrator completes the Summative Feedback Form (Appendix N)

END-OF-YEAR MEETING

Teacher and administrator meet to discuss updated Personal Profile Form, Goal Summary, and Summative Feedback Form and to discuss possible goals for the following year

Self-Reflection

An important component of the end-of-year process is the teacher's updating of the Personal Profile Form (Appendix D) that was completed at the beginning of the year, with particular attention paid to the status of the elements of the framework selected for growth.

Goals

As a part of the gathering of artifacts and evidence of growth, the teacher completes the Goal Summary (Appendix M) to assist in the documentation of progress in the targeted growth areas. The Goal Summary is meant to be completed at the end of the school year, usually after the final reflection.

Feedback

The Summative Feedback Form (Appendix N), like the Mid-Year Formative Feedback Form, is designed to allow a teacher's administrator to provide narrative statements and ratings of performance in each of the nine "design questions" from The Art and Science of Teaching (Marzano, 2007). The Summative Feedback Form is completed by the administrator and given to the teacher during their final meeting of the year.

End-of-Year Meeting

The teacher typically completes the Goal Summary (Appendix M) and updates the Personal Profile Form (Appendix D) before this final meeting so that those documents and the Summative Feedback Form (Appendix N) may be reviewed together.

Domain 1: Classroom Strategies and Behaviors

Routine Segments

Design Question: What will I do to establish and communication learning goals, track student progress, and celebrate success?

1. Providing clear learning goals and scales to measure those goals
2. Tracking student progress
3. Celebrating student success

Design Question: What will I do to establish and maintain classroom routines?

4. Establishing classroom routines
5. Organizing the physical layout of the classroom for learning

Content Segments

Design Question: What will I do to help students effectively interact with new knowledge?

6. Identifying critical information
7. Organizing students to interact with new knowledge
8. Previewing new content
9. Chunking content into “digestible bites”
10. Group processing of new information
11. Elaborating on new information
12. Recording and representing knowledge
13. Reflecting on learning

Design Question: What will I do to help students practice and deepen their understanding of new knowledge?

14. Reviewing content
15. Organizing students to practice and deepen knowledge
16. Using homework
17. Examining similarities and differences
18. Examining errors in reasoning
19. Practicing skills, strategies, and processes
20. Revising knowledge

Design Question: What will I do to help students generate and test hypotheses about new knowledge?

21. Organizing students for cognitively complex tasks
22. Engaging students in cognitively complex tasks involving hypothesis generating and testing
23. Providing resources and guidance

On-the-Spot Segments

Design Question: What will I do to engage students?

24. Noticing and reacting when students are not engaged
25. Using academic games
26. Managing response rates during questioning
27. Using physical movement
28. Maintaining a lively pace
29. Demonstrating intensity and enthusiasm
30. Using friendly controversy
31. Providing opportunities for students to talk about themselves
32. Presenting unusual or intriguing information

Design Question: What will I do to recognize and acknowledge adherence or lack of adherence to classroom rules and procedures?

33. Demonstrating “withitness”
34. Applying consequences
35. Acknowledging adherence to rules and procedures

Design Question: What will I do to establish and maintain effective relationships with students?

36. Understanding students’ interests and background
37. Using behaviors that indicate affection for students
38. Displaying objectivity and control

Design Question: What will I do to communicate high expectations for all students?

39. Demonstrating value and respect for low-expectancy students
40. Asking questions of low-expectancy students
41. Probing incorrect answers with low-expectancy students

Domain 2: Planning and Preparing

Planning and Preparing for Lessons and Units

1. Planning and preparing for effective scaffolding of information within lessons
2. Planning and preparing for lessons within a unit that progress toward a deep understanding and transfer of content
3. Planning and preparing for appropriate attention to established content standards

Planning and Preparing for Use of Materials and Technology

4. Planning and preparing for the use of available materials for upcoming units and lessons (e.g., manipulatives, videos)
5. Planning and preparing for the use of available technologies such as interactive whiteboards, response systems, and computers

Planning and Preparing for Special Needs of Students

6. Planning and preparing for the needs of English language learners
7. Planning and preparing for the needs of special education students
8. Planning and preparing for the needs of students who come from home environments that offer little support for schooling

Domain 3: Reflecting on Teaching

Evaluating Personal Performance

1. Identifying specific areas of pedagogical strength and weakness within Domain 1
2. Evaluating the effectiveness of individual lessons and units
3. Evaluating the effectiveness of specific pedagogical strategies and behaviors across different categories of students (i.e., different socioeconomic groups, different ethnic groups)

Developing and Implementing a Professional Growth and Development Plan

4. Developing a written growth and development plan
5. Monitoring progress relative to the professional growth and development plan

Domain 4: Collegiality and Professionalism

Promoting a Positive Environment

1. Promoting positive interactions about colleagues
2. Promoting positive interactions about students and parents

Promoting Exchange of Ideas and Strategies

3. Seeking mentorship for areas of need or interest
4. Mentoring other teachers and sharing ideas and strategies

Promoting District and School Development

5. Adhering to district and school rules and procedures
6. Participating in district and school initiatives

Domain 1: Routine Lesson Segments

Design Question: What will I do to establish and communicate learning goals, track student progress, and celebrate success?

1. What do I typically do to provide clear learning goals and scales (rubrics)?
The teacher provides a clearly stated learning goal accompanied by a scale or rubric that describes levels of performance relative to the learning goal.
Teacher Evidence <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Teacher has a learning goal posted so all students can see it.</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> The learning goal is a clear statement of knowledge or information as opposed to an activity or assignment.</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Teacher makes reference to the learning goal throughout the lesson.</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Teacher has a scale or rubric that relates to the learning goal posted so that all students can see it.</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> Teacher makes reference to the scale or rubric throughout the lesson.</li> </ul>	Student Evidence <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li><input type="checkbox"/> When asked, students can explain the learning goal for the lesson.</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> When asked, students can explain how their current activities relate to the learning goal.</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> When asked, students can explain the meaning of the levels of performance articulated in the scale or rubric.</li> </ul>

Domain 1: Routine Lesson Segments

2. What do I typically do to track student progress?

The teacher facilitates tracking of student progress on one or more learning goals using a formative approach to assessment.

Teacher Evidence

- Teacher helps students track their individual progress on the learning goal.
- Teacher assigns scores using a scale or rubric that depicts student status relative to the learning goal.
- Teacher uses formal and informal means to assign scores to students.
- Teacher charts the progress of the entire class on the learning goal.

Student Evidence

- When asked, students can describe their status relative to the learning goal using the scale or rubric.
- Students systematically update their status on the learning goal.

3. What do I typically do to celebrate success?

The teacher provides students with recognition of their current status and their knowledge gain relative to the learning goal.

Teacher Evidence

- Teacher acknowledges students who have achieved a certain score on the scale or rubric.
- Teacher acknowledges students who have made gains in their knowledge and skill relative to the learning goal.
- Teacher acknowledges and celebrates the final status and progress of the entire class.
- Teacher uses a variety of ways to celebrate success:
  - Show of hands
  - Certification of success
  - Parent notification
  - Round of applause

Student Evidence

- Students show signs of pride regarding their accomplishments in the class.
- When asked, students say they want to continue to make progress.

5. What do I typically do to organize the physical layout of the classroom?

The teacher organizes the physical layout of the classroom to facilitate movement and focus on learning.

Teacher Evidence

- The physical layout of the classroom has clear traffic patterns.
- The physical layout of the classroom provides easy access to materials and centers.
- The classroom is decorated in a way that enhances student learning:
  - Bulletin boards relate to current content.
  - Students' work is displayed.

Student Evidence

- Students move easily about the classroom.
- Students make use of materials and learning centers.
- Students attend to examples of their work that are displayed.
- Students attend to information on bulletin boards.
- Students can easily focus on instruction.

7. What do I typically do to organize students to interact with new knowledge?

The teacher organizes students into small groups to facilitate the processing of new information.

Teacher Evidence

- Teacher has established routines for student grouping and student interaction in groups.
- Teacher organizes students into ad hoc groups for the lesson:
  - Pairs
  - Triads
  - Small groups up to about five students

Student Evidence

- Students move to groups in an orderly fashion.
- Students appear to understand expectations about appropriate behavior in groups:
  - Respect opinions of others
  - Add their perspective to discussions
  - Ask and answer questions

8. What do I typically do to preview new content?

The teacher engages students in activities that help them link what they already know to the new content about to be addressed and facilitates these linkages.

Teacher Evidence

- Teacher uses preview question before reading.
- Teacher uses K-W-L strategy or variation of it.
- Teacher asks or reminds students of what they already know about the topic.
- Teacher provides an advance organizer:
  - Outline
  - Graphic organizer
- Teacher has students brainstorm.
- Teacher uses an anticipation guide.
- Teacher uses a motivational hook or launching activity:
  - Anecdotes
  - Short selection from video
- Teacher uses a word splash activity to connect vocabulary to upcoming content.
- When necessary, the teacher reteaches basic information or skills.

Student Evidence

- When asked, students can explain linkages with prior knowledge.
- When asked, students make predictions about upcoming content.
- When asked, students can provide a purpose for what they are about to learn.
- Students actively engage in previewing activities.

9. What do I typically do to chunk content into “digestible bites”?

Based on student needs, the teacher breaks the content into small chunks (that is, “digestible bites”) of information that can be easily processed by students.

Teacher Evidence

- Teacher stops at strategic points in a verbal presentation.
- While playing a video, the teacher pauses the video at key junctures.
- During a demonstration, the teacher stops at strategic points.
- While students are reading information or stories orally as a class, the teacher stops at strategic points.

10. What do I typically do to help students process new information?

During breaks in the presentation of content, the teacher engages students in actively processing new information.

Teacher Evidence

- Teacher has group members summarize new information.
- Teacher employs formal group processing strategies:
  - Jigsaw
  - Reciprocal teaching
  - Concept attainment

Student Evidence

- When asked, students can explain what they have just learned.
- Students volunteer predictions.
- Students voluntarily ask clarification questions.
- Groups are actively discussing the content:

11. What do I typically do to help students elaborate on new information?

The teacher asks questions or engages students in activities that require elaborative inferences that go beyond what was explicitly taught.

Teacher Evidence

- Teacher asks explicit questions that require students to make elaborative inferences about the content.
- Teacher asks students to explain and defend their inferences.
- Teacher presents situations or problems that require inferences.

12. What do I typically do to help students record and represent knowledge?

The teacher engages students in activities that help them record their understanding of new content in linguistic ways and/or represent the content in nonlinguistic ways.

Teacher Evidence

- Teacher asks students to summarize the information they have learned.
- Teacher asks students to generate notes that identify critical information in the content.
- Teacher asks students to create nonlinguistic representations for new content:
  - Graphic organizers
  - Pictures
  - Pictographs
  - Flow charts
- Teacher asks students to create mnemonics that organize the content.

16. What do I typically do to use homework?

When appropriate (as opposed to routinely), the teacher designs homework to deepen students' knowledge of informational content or practice a skill, strategy, or process.

Teacher Evidence

- Teacher communicates a clear purpose for homework.
- Teacher extends an activity that was begun in class to provide students with more time.
- Teacher assigns a well-crafted homework assignment that allows students to practice and deepen their knowledge independently.

17. What do I typically do to help students examine similarities and differences?

When the content is informational, the teacher helps students deepen their knowledge by examining similarities and differences.

Teacher Evidence

- Teacher engages students in activities that require students to examine similarities and differences between content:
  - Comparison activities
  - Classifying activities
  - Analogy activities
  - Metaphor activities
- Teacher facilitates the use of these activities to help students deepen their understanding of content:
  - Asks students to summarize what they have learned from the activity
  - Asks students to explain how the activity has added to their understanding

Student Evidence

- Student artifacts indicate that their knowledge has been extended as a result of the activity.

18. What do I typically do to help students examine errors in reasoning?

When content is informational, the teacher helps students deepen their knowledge by examining their own reasoning or the logic of the information as presented to them.

Teacher Evidence

- Teacher asks students to examine information for errors or informal fallacies such as:
  - Faulty logic
  - Attack
  - Weak reference
  - Misinformation
- Teacher asks students to examine the strength of support presented for a claim by looking for the following:
  - Statement of a clear claim
  - Evidence for the claim presented
  - Qualifiers presented showing exceptions to the claim
- Teacher asks students to examine claims to determine if they contain statistical limitations involving regression, conjunction, base rates, extrapolation, or the cumulative nature of risk.

Student Evidence

- When asked, students can describe errors or informal fallacies in information.

30. What do I typically do to use friendly controversy?

The teacher uses friendly controversy techniques to maintain student engagement.

Teacher Evidence

- Teacher structures mini-debates about the content.
- Teacher has students examine multiple perspectives and opinions about the content.
- Teacher elicits different opinions on content from members of the class.

Student Evidence

- Students engage in friendly controversy activities with enhanced engagement.
- When asked, students describe friendly controversy activities as “stimulating,” “fun,” and so on.
- When asked, students explain how a friendly controversy activity helped them better understand the content.

Domain 1: On-the-Spot Lesson Segments

31. What do I typically do to provide opportunities for students to talk about themselves?

The teacher provides students with opportunities to relate what is being addressed in class to their personal interests.

Teacher Evidence

- Teacher is aware of student interests and makes connections between these interests and class content.
- Teacher structures activities that ask students to make connections between the content and their personal interests.
- When students explain how content relates to their personal interests, the teacher appears encouraging and interested.

Student Evidence

- Students engage in activities that require them to make connections between their personal interests and the content.

32. What do I typically do to present unusual or intriguing information?

The teacher uses unusual or intriguing information about the content in a manner that enhances student engagement.

Teacher Evidence

- Teacher systematically provides interesting facts and details about the content.
- Teacher encourages students to identify interesting information about the content.
- Teacher engages students in activities, like “believe it or not,” about the content.
- Teacher uses guest speakers to provide unusual information about the content.
- Teacher tells stories that are related to the content.

34. What do I typically do to apply consequences for lack of adherence to rules and procedures?

The teacher consistently and fairly applies consequences for not following rules and procedures.

Teacher Evidence

- Teacher provides nonverbal signals when students' behavior is not appropriate, such as:
  - Eye contact
  - Proximity
  - Tap on the desk
  - Shaking head "no"
- Teacher provides verbal signals when students' behavior is not appropriate, such as:
  - Telling students to stop
  - Telling students that their behavior is in violation of a rule or procedure
- Teacher uses group contingency consequences when appropriate (that is, the whole group must demonstrate a specific behavior).
- Teacher involves the home when appropriate (that is, he or she makes a call home to parents to help extinguish inappropriate behavior).
- Teacher uses direct cost consequences when appropriate (for example, a student must fix something he or she has broken).

Student Evidence

- Students cease inappropriate behavior when the teacher signals.
- Students accept consequences as part of the way class is conducted.
- When asked, students describe the teacher as fair in application of rules.

35. What do I typically do to acknowledge adherence to rules and procedures?

The teacher consistently and fairly acknowledges adherence to rules and procedures.

Teacher Evidence

- Teacher provides nonverbal signals that a rule or procedure has been followed, such as:
  - Smile
  - Nod of head
  - High five
- Teacher gives verbal cues that a rule or procedure has been followed, such as:
  - Thanking students for following a rule or procedure
  - Describing student behaviors that adhere to a rule or procedure
- Teacher notifies the home when a rule or procedure has been followed.
- Teacher uses tangible recognition when a rule or procedure has been followed, such as:
  - Certificate of merit
  - Token economies

Design Question: What will I do to establish and maintain effective relationships with students?

36. What do I typically do to understand students' interests and background?

The teacher uses students' interests and background to produce a climate of acceptance and community.

Teacher Evidence

- Teacher has side discussions with students about events in their lives.
- Teacher has discussions with students about topics they are interested in.
- Teacher builds student interests into lessons.

37. What do I typically do to use verbal and nonverbal behaviors that indicate affection for students?

When appropriate, the teacher uses verbal and nonverbal behaviors that indicate affection for students.

Teacher Evidence

- Teacher compliments students regarding academic and personal accomplishments.
- Teacher engages in informal conversations with students that are not related to academics.
- Teacher uses humor with students when appropriate.
- Teacher smiles or nods at students when appropriate.
- Teacher puts a hand on students' shoulders when appropriate.

38. What do I typically do to display objectivity and control?

The teacher behaves in an objective and controlled manner.

Teacher Evidence

- Teacher does not exhibit extremes in positive or negative emotions.
- Teacher addresses inflammatory issues and events in a calm and controlled manner.
- Teacher interacts with all students in the same calm and controlled fashion.
- Teacher does not demonstrate personal offense at student misbehavior.

Student Evidence

- Students are settled by the teacher's calm demeanor.
- When asked, the students describe the teacher as in control of himself or herself and in control of the class.

Evaluating Personal Performance

1. What do I typically do to identify specific areas of pedagogical strength and weakness within Domain 1?

Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
I am a recognized leader in helping others with this activity.	I identify specific strategies and behaviors on which to improve from routine lesson segments, content lesson segments, and segments that are enacted on the spot.	I identify specific strategies and behaviors on which to improve but do not select the strategies and behaviors that are most useful for my development.	I attempt to perform this activity but do not actually complete or follow through with these attempts.	I don't attempt to perform this activity.

2. What do I typically do to evaluate the effectiveness of individual lessons and units?

Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
I am a recognized leader in helping others with this activity.	I determine how effective a lesson or unit was in terms of enhancing student achievement and identifies causes of success or failure.	I determine how effective a lesson or unit was in terms of enhancing student achievement but do not accurately identify causes of success or failure.	I attempt to perform this activity but do not actually complete or follow through with these attempts.	I don't attempt to perform this activity.

3. What do I typically do to evaluate the effectiveness of specific pedagogical strategies and behaviors across different categories of students (i.e., different socioeconomic groups, different ethnic groups)?

Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
I am a recognized leader in helping others with this activity. ### Domain 1: Routine Segments

Elements 1-3: What is/are the learning goal(s) for this lesson? Do you have a scale or rubric? If yes, please bring it with you to the conference.

Elements 4-5: Is there a need to introduce new procedures or change the physical layout of the classroom for this lesson?

Elements 4-5: What materials will you be using? Traditional? Technology?

Domain 1: Content Segments

Elements 6-23: Is this lesson introducing, practicing and deepening, or applying new content? Will the lesson utilize more than one of the content design questions?

Elements 6-23: Which elements will you be using for this lesson to enhance student understanding?

Elements 6-23: Who are your students with special needs and what adjustments will you make to ensure their understanding of the lesson?

Domain 1: On-the-Spot Segments

Elements 24-32: What strategies will you use to ensure student engagement?

Elements 39-41: In order for all students to participate, list the students who need to be encouraged and how you will involve them.

Lesson Segments Involving Routine Events
Design Question: What will I do to establish and communicate learning goals, track student progress, and celebrate success?
1. Providing clear learning goals and scales to measure those goals (e.g., the teacher provides or reminds students about a specific learning goal)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
2. Tracking student progress (e.g., using formative assessments, the teacher helps students chart their individual and group progress on a learning goal)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
3. Celebrating student success (e.g., the teacher helps students acknowledge and celebrate current status on a learning goal as well as knowledge gain)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
Notes:
Design Question: What will I do to establish and maintain classroom rules and procedures?
4. Establishing classroom rules and procedures (e.g., the teacher reminds students of a rule or a procedure or establishes a new rule or procedure)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
5. Organizing the physical layout of the classroom for learning (e.g., the teacher organizes materials, traffic patterns, and displays to enhance learning)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)

Lesson Segments Addressing Content
Design Question: What will I do to help students effectively interact with new knowledge?
6. Identifying critical information (e.g., the teacher provides cues as to which information is important)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
7. Organizing students to interact with new knowledge (e.g., the teacher organizes students into dyads or triads to discuss small chunks of content)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
8. Previewing new content (e.g., the teacher uses strategies such as: K-W-L, advance organizers, preview questions)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
9. Chunking content into “digestible bites” (e.g., the teacher presents content in small portions that are tailored to students’ level of understanding)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
10. Group processing of new information (e.g., after each chunk of information, the teacher asks students to summarize and clarify what they have experienced)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
11. Elaborating on new information (e.g., the teacher asks questions that require students to make and defend inferences)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
12. Recording and representing knowledge (e.g., the teacher asks students to summarize, take notes, or use non-linguistic representations)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
13. Reflecting on learning (e.g., the teachers asks students to reflect on what they understand or what they are still confused about)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
Notes:

Comprehensive Observation Record

Design Question: What will I do to help students practice and deepen their understanding of new knowledge?
14. Reviewing content (e.g., the teacher briefly reviews related content addressed previously)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
15. Organizing students to practice and deepen knowledge (e.g., the teacher organizes students into groups designed to review information or practice skills)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
16. Using homework (e.g., the teacher uses homework for independent practice or to elaborate information)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
17. Examining similarities and differences (e.g., the teacher engages students in comparing, classifying, creating analogies and metaphors)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
18. Examining errors in reasoning (e.g., the teacher asks students to examine informal fallacies, propaganda, bias)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
19. Practicing skills, strategies, and processes (e.g., the teacher uses massed and distributed practice)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
20. Revising knowledge (e.g., the teacher asks students to revise entries in notebooks to clarify and add to previous information)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
Notes:

Comprehensive Observation Record

Design Question: What will I do to help students generate and test hypotheses about new knowledge?

21. Organizing students for cognitively complex tasks (e.g., the teacher organizes students into small groups to facilitate cognitively complex tasks)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
22. Engaging students in cognitively complex tasks involving hypothesis generating and testing (e.g., the teacher engages students in decision making tasks, problem solving tasks, experimental inquiry tasks, investigation tasks)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
23. Providing resources and guidance (e.g., the teacher makes resources available that are specific to cognitively complex tasks and helps students execute such tasks)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)

Notes:

Comprehensive Observation Record

Lesson Segments Enacted on the Spot
Design Question: What will I do to engage students?
24. Noticing and reacting when students are not engaged (e.g., the teacher scans the classroom to monitor students' level of engagement)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
25. Using academic games (e.g., when students are not engaged, the teacher uses adaptations of popular games to reengage them and focus their attention on academic content)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
26. Managing response rates during questioning (e.g., the teacher uses strategies to ensure multiple students respond to questions such as: response cards, response chanting, voting technologies)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
27. Using physical movement (e.g., the teacher uses strategies that require students to move physically such as: vote with your feet, physical reenactments of content)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
28. Maintaining a lively pace (e.g., the teacher slows and quickens the pace of instruction in such a way as to enhance engagement)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
29. Demonstrating intensity and enthusiasm (e.g., the teacher uses verbal and nonverbal signals that he or she is enthusiastic about content)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
30. Using friendly controversy (e.g., the teacher uses techniques that require students to take and defend a position about content)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
31. Providing opportunities for students to talk about themselves (e.g., the teacher uses techniques that allow students to relate content to their personal lives and interests)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
32. Presenting unusual or intriguing information (e.g., the teacher provides or encourages the identification of intriguing information about the content)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
Notes:

Comprehensive Observation Record

Design Question: What will I do to recognize and acknowledge adherence or lack of adherence to rules and procedures?
33. Demonstrating "withitness" (e.g., the teacher is aware of variations in student behavior that might indicate potential disruptions and attends to them immediately)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
34. Applying consequences (e.g., the teacher applies consequences to lack of adherence to rules and procedures consistently and fairly)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
35. Acknowledging adherence to rules and procedures (e.g., the teacher acknowledges adherence to rules and procedures consistently and fairly)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
Notes:
Design Question: What will I do to establish and maintain effective relationships with students?
36. Understanding students' interests and backgrounds (e.g., the teacher seeks out knowledge about students and uses that knowledge to engage in informal, friendly discussions with students)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
37. Using verbal and nonverbal behaviors that indicate affection for students (e.g., the teacher uses humor and friendly banter appropriately with students)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
38. Displaying objectivity and control (e.g., the teacher behaves in ways that indicate he or she does not take infractions personally)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
Notes:

Comprehensive Observation Record

Design Question: What will I do to communicate high expectations for all students?
39. Demonstrating value and respect for low-expectancy students (e.g., the teacher demonstrates the same positive affective tone with low-expectancy students as with high-expectancy students)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
40. Asking questions of low-expectancy students (e.g., the teacher asks questions of low-expectancy students with the same frequency and level of difficulty as with high-expectancy students)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
41. Probing incorrect answers with low-expectancy students (e.g., the teacher inquires into incorrect answers with low-expectancy students with the same depth and rigor as with high-expectancy students)	Innovating (4)	Applying (3)	Developing (2)	Beginning (1)	Not Using (0)
Notes:

Generic Scale for Domain 1 Elements

	4	3	2	1	0
	Innovating	Applying	Developing	Beginning	Not Using
Target Element	Adapts and creates new strategies for unique student needs and situations.	Engages students in the strategy and monitors the extent to which it produces the desired outcome.	Engages students in the strategy with no significant errors or omissions.	Uses strategy incorrectly or with parts missing.	Strategy was called for but not exhibited.

Evaluator Name: _____ Observation Time: _____

Domain 1: Routine Segments

Elements 1-3: Did your learning goal(s) reflect the knowledge or information you wanted the students to know or be able to do? Did your scale or rubric give students a clear understanding of how they understood the content?

Elements 4-5: Were your materials appropriate for the lesson? Did the materials allow you to differentiate for the varied learning styles and abilities of all students?

Comprehensive Observation Post-Conference Questions

Domain 1: Content Segments

Elements 6-23: How well do you believe the content was delivered? Which elements worked the best?

Elements 6-23: How do you know the students understood the content? How and when will you reteach the content to those who need additional instruction?

Elements 6-23: Were the adjustments you made for your special needs students effective?

Comprehensive Observation Post-Conference Questions

Domain 1: On-the-Spot Segments

Elements 24-32: Were your strategies to engage students effective? What did you do to involve unengaged students in the lesson?

Elements 39-41: Was this lesson challenging for all students? How did you ensure that low-expectancy students were challenged?

What support do you need?

High School Student Survey

Note: The high school student survey includes six questions for each of the 41 elements of the Marzano Teacher Evaluation Model. It is not intended that teachers will ask students to respond to all six questions for each element. Rather, a teacher should select the survey questions that are most appropriate for their individual growth goals and are likely to yield the most valuable feedback from students.

High School Student Survey

Directions: For each question, circle "I disagree," "I agree," or "I strongly agree."

Stages of Teacher Development

It is recognized that there are stages of teacher development and the purpose of an evaluation system is to give teachers feedback so they may continue to improve and advance through the stages. Below are the stages and general guidelines:

Initial Status Teacher	Has a minimum score of 1 on all elements of Domain 1.  Ranks in the bottom one-third of the distribution of value-added achievement.
Professional Teacher	Has minimum scores of 2 and a majority of scores at level 3 in Domain 1.  Ranks between the 34th and 84th percentile on value-added achievement.
Mentor Teacher	Has scores of 4 on selected elements of Domain 1 and minimum scores of 3 on all other elements.  Ranks above 84th percentile on value-added achievement.
Master Teacher	Has scores of 4 on selected elements of Domain 1 and minimum scores of 3 on all other elements.  Ranks above 98th percentile on value-added achievement.

Numerical scores on the Mid-Year Formative Feedback Form represent the following levels of performance:

4.0: Innovating

3.0: Applying

2.0: Developing

1.0: Beginning

18. Examining errors in reasoning

19. Practicing skills, strategies, and processes

20. Revising knowledge

Summative Feedback Form

Lesson Segments Addressing Content

Elements 21-23: Generating and Testing Hypotheses

4.0	3.0	2.0	1.0
3.5	2.5	1.5

21. Organizing students for cognitively complex tasks

22. Engaging students in cognitively complex tasks involving hypothesis generating and testing

23. Providing resources and guidance

Summative Feedback Form

Lesson Segments Enacted on the Spot

Elements 24-32: Engagement

4.0	3.0	2.0	1.0
3.5	2.5	1.5

24. Noticing and reacting when students are not engaged

25. Using academic games

26. Managing response rates during questioning

27. Using physical movement

28. Maintaining a lively pace

29. Demonstrating intensity and enthusiasm

30. Using friendly controversy

31. Providing opportunities for students to talk about themselves

32. Presenting unusual or intriguing information

Elements 33-35: Adherence to Rules and Procedures

4.0	3.0	2.0	1.0
<hr/>
3.5	2.5	1.5

33. Demonstrating "withitness"

34. Applying consequences

35. Acknowledging adherence to rules and procedures

Elements 36-38: Student/Teacher Relationships

4.0	3.0	2.0	1.0
<hr/>
3.5	2.5	1.5

36. Understanding students' interests and background

37. Using behaviors that indicate affection for students

38. Displaying objectivity and control

Elements 39-41: High Expectations

4.0	3.0	2.0	1.0
<hr/>
3.5	2.5	1.5

39. Demonstrating value and respect for low-expectancy students

40. Asking questions of low-expectancy students

41. Probing incorrect answers with low-expectancy students

Summative Feedback Form

Domain 2: Planning and Preparing

Planning and Preparing for Lessons and Units

4.0	3.0	2.0	1.0
3.5	2.5	1.5

1. Planning and preparing for effective scaffolding of information within lessons
2. Planning and preparing for lessons within a unit that progress toward a deep understanding and transfer
3. Planning and preparing for appropriate attention to established content standards

Planning and Preparing for Use of Materials and Technology

4. Planning and preparing for the use of available materials for upcoming units and lessons (e.g., manipulatives, videos)
5. Planning and preparing for the use of available technologies such as interactive whiteboards, response systems, and computers

Planning and Preparing for Special Needs of Students

6. Planning and preparing for the needs of English language learners
7. Planning and preparing for the needs of special education students
8. Planning and preparing for the needs of students who come from home environments that offer little support for schooling

Summative Feedback Form

Domain 3: Reflecting on Teaching

Evaluating Personal Performance

4.0	3.0	2.0	1.0
3.5	2.5	1.5

1. Identifying specific areas of pedagogical strength and weakness within Domain 1
2. Evaluating the effectiveness of individual lessons and units
3. Evaluating the effectiveness of specific pedagogical strategies and behaviors across different categories of students (i.e., different socioeconomic groups, different ethnic groups)

Developing and Implementing a Professional Growth and Development Plan

4. Developing a written growth and development plan
5. Monitoring progress relative to the professional growth and development plan

Summative Feedback Form

Domain 4: Collegiality and Professionalism

Promoting a Positive Environment

4.0	3.0	2.0	1.0
3.5	2.5	1.5

1. Promoting positive interactions about colleagues
2. Promoting positive interactions about students and parents

Promoting Exchange of Ideas and Strategies

3. Seeking mentorship for areas of need or interest
4. Mentoring other teachers and sharing ideas and strategies

Promoting District and School Development
